Date	Readiness & Writing	Art	Math	Science	Language & Literacy	Dramatic Play
Tuesday May 1 st	Letter review Writing all of our letters using our Get Set For School book	Yellow and blue make ??? lets mix paint to see	1 to 1 Correlation Numbers 1-5	Catching Bugs w/nets, tongs & scoopers	Library Story Time Combine Letters A, O, C, T, F, S, M, P Fat, Cat, Sat Book	Our Home Center will give our students the opportunity to develop their language, cooperation & role playing skills. Dress-up clothes give students the opportunity to role play different family members and scenarios. It can take some negotiation and cooperation to determine who will take on each roll. Wallets and purses are the perfect accessories to keep our money and keys for a trip to the store. Paper and pencils allow us to write grocery lists or leave someone a note. Students will serve up lots of creative dishes with our play food, cups, plates and utensils. Cookbooks will give us ideas for new dishes and also show us how text represents ingredient lists and instructions. One of the favorite activities in the Home Center is caring for our youngest family members. As our baby dolls are rocked, fed, changed and read to, students develop their oral language skills, compassion and empathy.
